MARTHA SWILLING—SURVIVING CHILDREN OF.

[To accompany Bill H. R. No. 268.]

MARCH 2, 1860.

Mr. JUNKIN, from the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, made the following

REPORT.

The Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of the surviving children of Martha Swilling, late of Georgia, widow of George Swilling, to grant said widow a pension, under the act of July 7, 1838, have had the subject under consideration, and report:

That from the proofs filed in the case of the said Martha Swilling, who filed her declaration under the act of Congress passed July 7, 1838, that her husband, the said George Swilling, did serve, as she alleged, as much as fifteen months in the war of the American revolution ; and that she was married to her husband prior to the first of January, 1794, according to the requirements of the said act of July 7, 1838. The committee are of opinion that she was entitled to the benefit of said act ; and they recommend and propose the accompanying bill granting her surviving children the sum that was due her to the period of her decease.

MARTHA SWILLING—SURVIVING CHILDREN OF

March 2, 1850.

Mr. JESSIE, from the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, made the following

REPORT.

The Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of the surviving children of Martha Swilling, late of Georgia, widow of George Swilling, to grant said widow a pension, under the act of July, 1836, have had the subject under consideration, and report:

That from the proof filed in the case of the said Martha Swilling, who died the declaration under the act of Congress passed July 7, 1836, that her husband, the said George Swilling, did serve, as the alleged, a year or fifteen months in the war of the American revolution; and that she was married to her husband prior to the first of January, 1794, according to the requirements of the said act of July 7, 1836. The committee are of opinion that she was entitled to the benefit of said act; and they recommend and propose the accompanying bill, granting her surviving children the sum that was due her to the period of her decease.